Bradford, March 2, 1888

Dear Egbert,

Your letter of the 22nd Feb. was duly rec. Also your Mother's of the 25th. Grandma will answer it soon. We were very glad to hear that you were well. I will enclose two dollars to you. One from Jacob Carman and one from Frank Hedges. I will send to you as fast as I can collect. Aunt Celina expects to go Uncle Willard's tomorrow. She sends her best love to you all. Will write to your Mother when she gets to Uncle Willard's. We have had quite cold weather the last of Feb. But March came in warm, mercury above 40 this morning. Snow nearly gone. Tell your Mother we have another Minister at Weston. He is from Aubern, a Mr. Frothingham. He will not move into Parsonage until the first of June. He will close his studies at Aubern at that time. He is a man about 40 or over. Will commence the year the first of April. We are well as usual I pulled down on the scale 140 last night.

Love to all,
Yours Aff'y,
Wm. E. Crane

==========

THQ notes:

Willard and Celina are Hannah Morse's brother and sister.